

Certificate entitlement

If your Change of Name was registered with the NSW Registry of Births Deaths & Marriages after 1 April 1996 you can use this application to apply for a certificate.

If you are applying for your own certificate, you must provide:

- Three forms of your own ID (see below).

If you are applying for a certificate on behalf of another person, you must provide:

- A Letter of Authority (available at: www.bdm.nsw.gov.au) giving permission from the person named on the certificate or if deceased, their next-of-kin. Please include their address, phone number and signature.
- Three forms of ID from the person giving permission (see below).
- Three forms of your own ID (see below).

Identification (ID)

Please provide at least three forms of ID, one of each from categories 1, 2 and 3. If you are unable to provide ID from categories 1 and 2, you must still provide at least three forms of ID. At least two of these must be from category 3.

All documents except foreign passports must be current.

Your right to privacy

To protect your privacy, the Registry requires proof of your identity. In line with the NSW Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995 and the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998, the Registry collects information to determine your eligibility to obtain a certificate and to prevent fraud. Information may be used for statistical purposes and by law enforcement agencies, and other uses by law. For more information on privacy please visit our website.

Disclosure of information

When you complete this application form, understand that you have consented to the release of information provided by you, to those agencies who may be able to validate that information in support of your application.

This information may be provided to agencies including (but not limited to) other Registries of Births, Deaths & Marriages, law enforcement agencies, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, Department of Immigration and Border Protection, and motor vehicle or driver licensing authorities. Usually these referrals will be to simply verify the documents or other evidence that you have provided us in making your application for a certificate. If there are discrepancies, we may require you to correct any errors with the issuing agency, before being able to process your application. It is extremely important that all your identity documents are accurate and reflect your correct identity information.

Documents provided as proof of identity may have their authenticity verified through the National Document Verification Service (DVS).
