

Application to register a relationship

Relationships Register Act 2010 (NSW)

Justice

Registry of Births
Deaths & Marriages

General information

Eligibility

To apply to register your relationship in NSW both partners must be:

- over 18 years of age;
- not married to each other or anyone else;
- not already in a registered relationship under this Act or in another state or territory in Australia;
- not in a relationship with another person;
- not related by family.

At least one partner must reside in NSW.

Neither partner is required to be a (temporary or permanent) resident of Australia.

Partners who were married overseas in a same sex marriage are also eligible to register a relationship in NSW.

The 28 day cooling off period

Once your application has been checked and everything is complete and correct it can be processed.

There is a cooling off period before the relationship is registered and a certificate issued.

To cancel your application to register a relationship, you can lodge a Notice to withdraw within the 28 day cooling off period (page 11).

- Only the partners applying to register their relationship can apply to withdraw.
- One or both partners may apply.
- There is no fee to withdraw, however the relationship registration fee is non-refundable.
- Partner(s) who lodge a notice to withdraw must provide 3 forms of identification.

Identification documents

Three forms of identity are required for each partner.

- One partner must show proof of residency in New South Wales.
- All documents must be in English (provide accredited translation if necessary).

Applying by post

- An authorised witness must certify each photocopy to say it is a true copy of the original document.

Applying in person

- Original identification is required, if you are applying in person.

Authorised witness

The following authorised witnesses can certify identity documents and witness the signing of a statutory declaration:

- Justice of the Peace (JP).
To locate a JP search www.jp.nsw.gov.au
- Public Notary
- Legal practitioner – Solicitor/Barrister (holding a current practising certificate)
- A person authorised to administer an oath under Section 26 of the Oaths Act 1900.

Statutory Declarations

- An authorised witness must confirm your identity before the declaration is made.
- They will need an identity document from you such as an Australian passport, Australian birth certificate, or driver licence, etc.
- A statutory declaration must be completed by each partner.

Your right to privacy

Privacy

The information required on this form is collected under the Relationship Register Act 2010 and the BDMR Act. The relationship register is part of the civil records of NSW and a permanent historical record. The public do not have access to these records.

Information held by the Registry may be used for statistical purposes and by law enforcement agencies, as well as other uses provided for by law. Such access for approved purposes may be granted to other Registries and certain government and authorised non-government agencies.

The Registry requires proof of your identity to protect your privacy. We collect this information in line with the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998, to determine your eligibility to register a change of name, to issue the related certificate and to prevent fraud. All documents are scanned and retained in the Registry's system and all copies are destroyed.

Disclosure of information

When you complete this application form, understand that you have consented to the release of information provided by you, to those agencies which may be able to validate that information in support of your application. It is extremely important that all your identity documents are accurate and reflect your correct identity information.

Documents provided as proof of identity may have their authenticity verified through the online National Document Verification Service (DVS).

For more information, please see our policy on the website: Your Right to Privacy.

Identification for each partner

This section is to apply to register a relationship (or withdraw).

- You must provide three forms of identification, one of each from categories 1, 2 and 3. If you are unable to provide identification from category 1, you must still provide at least three forms of identification. At least one of these must be from category 2 and two from category 3.
- The person who is residing in NSW must provide at least one identification document containing a current NSW residential address (see category 4).
- All identification must be current (not expired). Utility bills or rate notices must have been issued within the last 3 months.
- Identity documents issued by overseas authorities must be translated into English by an accredited translator, i.e. National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI).
- If applying in person, you must bring the original documents.
- If applying by post, you must enclose certified photocopies of each identity document. Do not send original documents with your application. See Page 1 for a list of Authorised Witnesses. A certified identity document is a photocopy which an Authorised Witness says is a true copy of the original.
