Your right to privacy

The NSW Registry of Births Deaths & Marriages administers the Relationships Register Act 2010 (NSW). The information required on this form is collected under the provisions of this Act and forms the basis for the registration of a relationship. The change of name register is part of the civil records of NSW and is a permanent historical record. The public does not have access to these records.

The information held by the Registry may be used for statistical purposes and by law enforcement agencies, as well as other uses provided for by law. Such access for approved purposes may be granted to other Registries and certain government agencies (including Passports Office, Department of Immigration and Citizenship, and motor vehicle or driver licencing authorities) and to the authorised non-government agencies.

To protect your privacy, the Registry requires proof of your identity. In line with the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998, the Registry is collecting this information so that it can determine your eligibility to perform a change of name, to obtain the requested certificate and to prevent fraud.

For further information on privacy please visit our website at: www.bdm.nsw.gov.au.

Disclosure of information

When you complete this application form, we will assume that you consent to the release of information provided by you, to those agencies who may be able to validate that information in support of your application.

This information may be provided to agencies including (but not limited to) other Registries of Births, Deaths & Marriages, Law Enforcement agencies, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFaT), Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC), and motor vehicle or driver licencing authorities. Usually these referrals will be to simply verify the documents or other evidence that you have provided us in making your application for a certificate. If there are discrepancies, we may require you to correct any errors with the issuing agency, before being able to process your application. It is extremely important that all your identity documents are accurate and reflect your correct identity information.

Documents provided as proof of identity may have their authenticity verified through the online Certificate Validation Service (CertValid) and the National Document Verification System (DVS). Documents issued by this office may also be verified by other organisations using CertValid and/or DVS.
