Birth registration
As an Albury resident, you can choose to register your child in NSW rather than in Victoria.

All births at the Wodonga Hospital are registered in Victoria, except for parents who live in the listed parts of the Albury Local Government Area, who can choose to have the birth registered in NSW if they prefer.

A birth can’t be registered in both states, and once the registration is complete in one state, it can’t be changed.

You are eligible to register your child in NSW only if you live in one of the following suburbs:

- Postcode 2640
  Albury, North Albury, East Albury, South Albury, West Albury, Ettamoga, Glenroy, Mungabareena, St Hilaire, Lake Hume Village, Splitters Creek, Table Top, Wirlinga, Corrys Wood, Thurgoona

- Postcode 2641
  Hamilton Valley, Springdale Heights, Norris Park, Lavington

Once your baby is born, to register the birth in NSW please call the Registry Birth team on: 02 9035 6588
