Who can correct an entry?

This form is to correct information in the register of the NSW Registry of Births Deaths & Marriages. The BDMR Act allows for records to be corrected and supporting evidence may be required. Applicants must provide identification.

Do not use this application to change a name or to include a parent's details on a birth registration. To change a name, use the: Change of Name form. To include a parent's details on a birth registration use: Apply to add a Parent to a Birth Certificate form. Application forms are on our website www.bdm.nsw.gov.au

Birth register

Applications can only be made by the person who is registered on the certificate. If the registered person is under the age of 18 years, either parent listed on the registration may apply. The Registry may request further information. Other parties who wish to apply should contact the Registry.

Relationship Register

Either or both applicants in the relationship can make an application. Other parties who wish to apply should contact the Registry.

How we deal with your information

Your right to privacy

The NSW Registry of Births Deaths & Marriages administers the NSW Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995. The information required on this form is collected under the provisions of this Act and forms the basis for the registration of these life events. The Registers are part of the civil records of NSW and are a permanent historical record. The public does not have access to these records.

The information held by the Registry may be used for statistical purposes and by law enforcement agencies, as well as other uses provided for by law. Such access for approved purposes may be granted to other Registries and certain government agencies (including Passport Office, Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP), and motor vehicle or driver licensing authorities) and to the authorised non-government agencies.

To protect your privacy, the Registry requires proof of your identity. In line with the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998, the Registry is collecting this information so that it can determine your eligibility to correct an entry in the register, to obtain the requested certificate and to prevent fraud. For further information, please visit our website: www.bdm.nsw.gov.au

Disclosure of information

When you complete this application form, understand that you have consented to the release of information provided by you, to those agencies that may be able to validate that information in support of your application.

This information may be provided to agencies including, but not limited to, other Registries of Births, Deaths & Marriages, law enforcement agencies, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFaT), Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP), and motor vehicle or driver licencing authorities.

Usually these referrals will be to simply verify the documents or other evidence that you have provided us in making your application for a certificate.

If there are discrepancies, we may require you to correct any errors with the issuing agency, before being able to process your application.

It is extremely important that all your identity documents are accurate and reflect your correct identity information.

Documents provided as proof of identity may have their authenticity verified through the National Document Verification Service (DVS).

Documents issued by this office may also be verified by other organisations using DVS
