

Certificate entitlement

This application form can only be used if the death occurred in NSW. If you are the next of kin named on the death certificate, i.e. spouse (married/defacto/same sex defacto), parent or child of the deceased, the death certificate can be issued to you. If you are a relative not listed on the certificate, the certificate can be issued to you if the deceased had no living spouse, children or parents.

If you DO meet the above criteria, you must provide:

- Three forms of your own ID (see below).

If you DON'T meet the above criteria, you must provide:

- A Letter of Authority (available at: www.bdm.nsw.gov.au) giving permission from the next-of-kin. Please include their address, phone number and signature.
- Three forms of ID from the next-of-kin (see below).
- Three forms of your own ID (see below).

Identification (ID)

Please provide at least three forms of ID, one of each from categories 1, 2 and 3. If you are unable to provide ID from categories 1 and 2, you must still provide at least three forms of ID. At least two of these must be from category 3.

All documents except foreign passports must be current.

Your right to privacy

To protect your privacy, the Registry requires proof of your identity. In line with the NSW Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1995 and the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998, the Registry collects information to determine your eligibility to obtain a certificate and to prevent fraud. Information may be used for statistical purposes and by law enforcement agencies, and other uses by law. Please read the policy on our website:

Your Right to Privacy.

Disclosure of information

When you complete this application form, understand that you have consented to the release of information provided by you, to those agencies who may be able to validate that information in support of your application.

This information may be provided to agencies including (but not limited to) other Registries of Births, Deaths & Marriages, law enforcement agencies, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, Department of Immigration and Border Protection, and motor vehicle or driver licensing authorities. Usually these referrals will be to simply verify the documents or other evidence that you have provided us in making your application for a certificate. If there are discrepancies, we may require you to correct any errors with the issuing agency, before being able to process your application. It is extremely important that all your identity documents are accurate and reflect your correct identity information.

Documents provided as proof of identity may have their authenticity verified through the online Certificate Validation Service (CertValid) and the National Document Verification Service (DVS). Documents issued by this office may also be verified by other organisations using CertValid and/or DVS.
